SUPPORT FOR IMMIGRANT FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

Standing Firm for Families provides emergency financial support to Santa Clara County families with young children (prenatal–age 5) who have experienced recent immigration-related hardships.

Eligible families can be referred through Catholic Charities, and referrals should include the family's name, a brief description of need, and the referrer's contact information for follow-up.

HOW TO APPLY

Families must meet all of the following:

- Live in Santa Clara County
- Have a child prenatal to age 5
- Experienced an immigration-related hardship after January 1, 2025
- Have a current emergency basic need (rent, utilities, food, etc.)

If you are working with a family who meets all criteria, please refer them directly:
